

2025 CONVENTION NEWS

WESTERN MARYLAND WELCOME

by Lillian T. Martin

When you get in the car and you head for the hills,

Leaving jobs, kids and housework behind,

Open your heart to the vision ahead

To the multiple pleasures you'll find.

The highway starts climbing ... it curves through the hills ...

And vistas unfold as you drive.

The trees arch in splendor, the flowers that bloom

Keep your enjoyment alive.

Serenity beckons wherever you turn,

No matter which highway you take,

But perhaps it's the best of all possible worlds

To stay at a place near a lake.

The sparkling waters by sunlight or stars

With negative ions galore

Invite you to swimming or sailing or fish ...

Or discover the trails on the shore.

The air of the mountains is different somehow,

And the breezes blow, teasing and light,

Refreshing whatever you do in the day

And great for sound sleeping at night.

Whatever the reason you came to the hills,

No matter the why or the when,

You'll find Mother Nature's a hostess supreme

And she wants you to come back again.
